CONTEMPORARY CHINA STUDIES PROGRAMME (CCSP)

<http://chinastudies.ruc.edu.cn/>

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

Since 2006, the Contemporary China Studies Programme (CCSP) has offered overseas students not yet proficient in Chinese language but also the opportunity to study Chinese governance and foreign relations while living in China's capital city. CCSP draws students from all over the world, fostering a unique multidisciplinary and multinational environment in which diverse backgrounds and experiences enhance rigorous academic study.

The two-year master's programme provides a comprehensive introduction to the economy, politics, law, society, and foreign policy of contemporary China. In the second year, the programme supports students as they conduct independent research on a topic of their choosing. Upon completion of the programme, graduates will earn a Master of law degree, as recognized by the Ministry of Education of the People's Republic of China.

The language of instruction and administration for CCSP is ENGLISH.

CCSP resides within the School of International Studies at Renmin University (Renda), China's premier institution of higher learning in the humanities and social sciences. Renda's tradition of research and teaching excellence provides an unmatched foundation for educating top foreign students in the fundamentals of Chinese politics, society, and foreign relations. The university's vibrant academic community enriches students' experiences well beyond the classroom.
