

Erasmus Internship

Our translation agency HT International s.r.o. based in Prague offers a paid Internship - Translator / Post-editor EN/DE.

The job description consists of monolingual proofreading of documents translated into German, quality control (QA Check) of the translations, terminology management and maintenance of translations memories. Also there is potential for cooperation in particular stages of translation production, post-production and pre-production (formatting). According to the intern's professional focus and qualification he or she can take part on other activities within our company. We expect ad-hoc cooperation on specific projects on times and dates we agree on, the monetary compensation will be confirmed in advance.

We look for excellent students, preferably students or graduates in linguistic fields with desire to apply their knowledge and skills in real life and who aim at top level of performance. The applicant should be efficient with personal computer, MS Office programs and be able to learn work-flows in new software environment.

In case of your interest, please kindly send your CV to recruitment@hero-translating.com.