Study and administrative fees:

Currently there are no exceptions to the study and administrative fees due to the Corona crisis. Payment of the fees is a prerequisite for enrolling in summer semester 2020. For any questions regarding the fees please contact the Admissions Office for foreign citizens and EU citizens (Studiensekretariat).

Rental contract

According to a new law, landlords cannot terminate contracts if tenants are unable to pay their rent due to the current Corona crisis. This regulation is valid for the period of April 1 until at least June 30, 2020. The rental payments are merely postponed and must be paid within two years, possibly with interests. Please inform your landlord as soon as possible if you struggle to pay your rent!

FAQ to the new law by the Federal Ministry of Justice (in German)

If you live in a dormitory and have any questions concerning your contract or difficulties regarding rental payments, please contact the Studierendenwerk immediately!

Jobs and working

While some jobs are unavailable at the moment, in other areas workforce is still sought after, e.g. in logistic, supermarkets and in agriculture. Please use the regular job portals or contact the Employment Agency (Arbeitsagentur).

Specifically for jobs as planting and harvesting helper you can register within the portal “Das Land hilft”.

Multilingual information on the effects of employment law and immediate economic measures are available on the website of the Federal Government Commissioner for Migration, Refugees and Integration.

For any questions regarding work, residence permits or information about possibilities and restrictions of the current situation, please contact the Welcome Center Stuttgart.

Financial aid and scholarships

Information on the currently limited options for financial support for international students can be found on our webpage.

Several organizations are currently working on measures to support students financially in the corona crisis. Any new financial support for international students will be announced on our corona website.
In case you are in a financial emergency situation, we are happy to consult with you via email, video call or on the phone in order to look at your individual circumstances and assist in any way that we can.

Please do not hesitate to contact the International Office for any further questions!
